

Supplementary Form for MA in English Applicants

In order to apply for the MA in English applicants must:

- submit a completed application form
- arrange for submission of an academic reference
- submit this supplementary form.

Name:

Address:

Phone number:

Email:

Please indicate with X which pathway you wish to follow if your application is successful:

MA in English Literature

MA in English (Children's Literature)

MA in English (Literatures Victorian and Modern)

MA in English (Literatures Medieval and Early Modern)

Option Modules

In addition to the compulsory module "Research and Scholarship" and the Dissertation, students choose five option modules; two in Term 1 and three in Term 2:

Students following the MA in English Literature pathway may choose any five options.

Students following the MA in English (Children's Literature) pathway must include the 2 modules marked ***.

Students following the MA in English (Literatures Victorian and Modern) pathway must include at least 2 of the modules marked #.

Students following the MA in English (Literatures Medieval and Early Modern) pathway must include the 2 modules marked ^.

Please indicate in order of preference by numbering 1-3 (1 = first choice) the modules you wish to take in term one if your application is successful:

- Literature and Controversy 1350-1650 (20 credits) ^
- Victorian Crime Fiction (20 credits) #
- Classic Children's Literature (20 credits)* #

Please indicate in order of preference by numbering 1-4 (1 = first choice) the modules you wish to take in term two if your application is successful

- Case Studies in Early Modern Literature (20 credits) ^
- Literature of the Fin de Siècle (20 credits) #
- Modern and Contemporary Children's Literature (20 credits)* #
- Literature and War from 1914 to the Present (20 credits) #

Please note that preferences indicated on this form do not guarantee entry to a particular module. While we hope that all modules will run each year, the department cannot guarantee that all modules will run in any given year.