

CCCU Christmas craft, choir & cake celebration

creative staff & students raising funds for READ International

Wednesday 30th November, 12 - 2pm
Augustine Hall

Come and enjoy a feel good festive celebration, with a wide selection of crafts, music from the Gospel Choir and the infamous 'Chaplaincy cake bake off'.

Over 20 stalls including:

- *photography*
- *jewellery*
- *stitch craft*
- *art*
- *cards*
- *pottery*
- *quilting*
- *bags*
- *crochet and knitted gifts*
- *wood turned items*
- *nail art*
- *much, much more!*

The Annual Chaplaincy Cake Bake off

*Are you a whiz in the kitchen?
Then enter your finest cake creations!*

*Drop off you entry to Garry
Williams in the Atrium Cafe on the day for judging: 11am*

*Winner announced 12pm in
Augustine Hall*

*Win 2 tickets to the London
Community Gospel Choir concert*

*The Atrium Cafe are providing tea, coffee and mince pies and are kindly donating all proceeds to READ. So make this a lunch date, stock up on some truely unique christmas gifts and polish it off with a mince pie while relaxing in the chill out zone.

For more information please contact rebecca.douglas@canterbury.ac.uk