

Supplementary Form for MA in English Applicants

In order to apply for the MA in English applicants must:

- submit a completed application form
- arrange for submission of an academic reference
- submit this supplementary form.

Name:

Address:

Phone number:

Email:

Please indicate with a tick which pathway you wish to follow if your application is successful:

MA in English Literature

MA in English: Children's Literature

MA in English: Literatures Victorian and Modern

Option Modules*

In addition to the compulsory modules "Issues, Scholarship and Method in Literary Research 1," "Issues, Scholarship and Method in Literary Research 2" and the Dissertation, students choose four option modules; two in Term 1 and two in Term 2:

Students following the MA in English Literature pathway may choose any four options.

Students following the MA in English: Children's Literature pathway must take at least 2 of the modules marked * over the course of the year.

Students following the MA in English: Literatures Victorian and Modern pathway must take at least 2 of the modules marked # over the course of the year.

Please indicate in order of preference by numbering 1-3 (1 = first choice) the modules you wish to take in term one if your application is successful:

Nineteenth-Century Children's Literature (20 credits)*#

Victorian Crime Fiction (20 credits)#

Classics of Modern Children's Literature (20 credits)*#

Please indicate in order of preference by numbering 1-3 (1 = first choice) the modules you wish to take in term two if your application is successful

Literature of the Fin de Siècle (20 credits)#

Literature and War in the Twentieth Century (20 credits)#

Young Adult Fiction (20 credits)*#

 Please note that preferences indicated on this form do not guarantee entry to a particular module. While we hope that all modules will run each year, the department cannot guarantee that all modules will run in any given year.*