

The Baby Room Conference

Laud Building
Canterbury Christ Church University
£45 (including lunch and refreshments)

Friday 9th July 2010

9.00am-2.00pm

This is a conference about babies in daycare.

Key speakers will come together to consider the care of babies in daycare settings in England: provisions made for them, environments created for them, policies relating to them, practice involving them and contemporary research about babies.

Key Speakers

Dr Jools Page, University of Sheffield
'Choices, beliefs and dilemmas: understanding the perspectives of six mothers about day-care for their babies.'

Dr Peter Elfer, Roehampton University
'Understanding relationships in daycare settings'

Liz Attenborough, Talk to Your Baby, National Literacy Trust
'Understanding the importance of talking to babies'

Professor Tricia David will chair the Plenary session

During this conference we will also be celebrating the end of a research and development project, with practitioners from local nurseries who will be sharing their work.

Exhibitors will include Nursery World, Talk to Your Baby, Community Playthings, TACTYC, OMEP and there will also be an excellent bookshop.

Limited places available

To book your place, please visit
www.canterbury.ac.uk/education/conferences

Alternatively, contact Gill by email gill.harrison@canterbury.ac.uk or phone 01227 782744.