

QISS

Towards Advanced Practice

Training Day

Friday 11 November 2011

10.45am – 3.15pm

Hall Place, Canterbury, Kent, CT2 9AG

£175 per delegate

This day aims to help you prepare for Advanced QISS or QES recognition.

It's aimed at schools, centers and clusters who have achieved Established recognition and wish to obtain Advanced. It may also benefit those wishing to revalidate at Advanced level.

To book your place, email:

sue.vardy@canterbury.ac.uk

A centre with Advanced status has shown itself to be a centre of excellence, delivering innovative practice. The award of Advanced status is also an important marketing tool, as it's an independent assessment of quality.

'The leading edge of study support practice, involving young people and the wider community in goal setting, planning and tutoring. There will be conviction, confidence and expertise to train and lead others and to become national centres of excellence'.

(The Study Support Code of Practice, A Guide for Schools, 2004)

Programme

10.45am	Arrival – refreshments
11.00am	Purposes
11.10am	Advanced Practice - What is it? How is it different from 'Established'?
11.25am	Reflection – stage of development reached/ sharing of successes
12.00pm	Focus on Themes <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Measuring the Difference</li><li>• Getting Results</li><li>• Managing Improvement</li><li>• Achieving a Return on Investment</li></ul>
1.15pm	Lunch
1.45pm	Recap: key points from morning session
2.00pm	Guest Speaker: An Advanced Centre's journey/exemplars
2.30pm	Dissemination
2.45pm	Requirements
3.00pm	Next Steps
3.15pm	Close

To book your place, email: sue.vardy@canterbury.ac.uk

Faculty of Education