

Children, their World, their Education: Reclaiming the agenda, Primary Conference

Date: Monday 7 November 2011

Time: 10am – 4pm

Location: Salomons Campus, Tunbridge Wells

Fee: £30 per delegate

(£50 'school rate' for 2 delegates, £15 for CCCU education graduates 2010/11).
Fee includes lunch, refreshments and related resources.

Keynote speaker: Alison Peacock

National Cambridge Primary Review Network Leader and Headteacher of The Wroxham Primary School, Herts

www.canterbury.ac.uk/education/conferences

... children, their world, their education

Children, their World, their Education

This conference has been organised by Canterbury Christ Church University, the South East Regional Dissemination Centre for the Cambridge Primary Review. It is aimed at all educators committed to the child and children's learning.

The conference will look at exciting possibilities for the future of the primary curriculum. This will be considered within the context of the work of Professor Robin Alexander and the Cambridge Primary Review – described as the most comprehensive review of primary education since Plowden.

Conference booking deadline: Monday 24 October 2011

Book your place: www.canterbury.ac.uk/education/conferences

Conference Administrator: Caroline Holden

Phone: 01227 782467

Email: caroline.holden@canterbury.ac.uk

CCCU staff: email Caroline to book your place

Seminars / Workshops

Following the keynote speech, delegates will have the opportunity to participate in 3 seminars/workshops which will include:

- Reading for pleasure at home and at school
- Developing the art of storytelling in the primary classroom
- Applying mathematical ideas
- Working towards a respectful science education
- Looking, talking and making: An exploration of the environment and 3D representations
- The arts, the curriculum and the wellbeing of children
- Listening to children's voices in the early years