	Bursary Awards	Instrumental/ Vocal Scholarships	Chapel Choir Choral, Organ and Conducting Scholarships	Canterbury Rotary Club Bursaries
Who?	Bursaries are available to students within the School of Creative Arts and Industries .	Scholarships are open to all students at Christ Church .	These Scholarships are open to all students at Christ Church . There are 12 Choral Scholarships: four of each voice part (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass), one Organ Scholarship, and one Conducting Scholarship.	Bursaries may be awarded to talented performers on any Christ Church course. In most years up to three of these prestigious bursaries are available.
What?	These awards help students sustain and develop their creative practice and may support, for example, the purchase of software or sheet music; fees for specialist instruction; travel expenses.	Scholarships help students sustain and develop their instrumental and/or vocal talents. Scholars will be expected to perform in at least one university ensemble.	They are aimed at those who wish to contribute to the University Chapel's music. The Choir sings an Evensong every Thursday in term time at 5.30pm, and several other services including the Candlemas service in the Cathedral.	A condition of holding a Canterbury Rotary Club Instrumental Bursary is that you are an active member of at least one of the University's ensembles.
How much?	Bursary Awards are worth up to £300.	They are worth £300, which pays for 10 hours of teaching with one of our specialist instrumental or vocal teachers.	Choral Scholarships are worth £800 per annum; the Organ and Conducting Scholarships are worth £1,000 per annum.	Bursaries are worth £500. These bursaries are funded by the generous support of local Rotarians.
