SPECIAL REGULATIONS: BSC (HONS) PROFESSIONAL POLICING

INTRODUCTION

1 These Special Regulations apply to the following programme:

- BSc (Hons) Professional Policing programme

2 Accreditation for the BSc (Hons) Professional Policing is regulated by the College of Policing.

3 These Special Regulations are designed to enable recognition of a licensed Pre-Join Professional Policing degree to meet the College of Policing requirements.

COMPENSATION

4 In order to be awarded a BSc (Hons) Professional Policing, a student is not entitled to compensation for the following modules:

Level 4

- Crime Science and Problem-Solving
- Introduction to Professional Policing
- Criminology and Crime Prevention
- Criminal Justice System and How to Tell What Works
- Core Policing 1
- Law and Politics of Policing

Level 5

- Core Policing 2
- Policing Communities and Work-Based Learning
- Decision-Making Theory and Practice in Policing
- Criminal Investigation
- Cybercrime and Digital Policing
- Wicked Problems in Policing

Level 6

- Individual Study
- Changes and Challenges: Local Policing in Global Context
- Core Policing 3

- Research Methods and Evidence-Based Policing.

ALTERNATIVE EXIT AWARD

5 If a student who passes the award but requests compensation for the following modules, may be awarded a BSc (Hons) Policing.

CONTEMPORARY LANGUAGE STUDIES MODULES

6 As the College of Policing curriculum is requires a high core credit rating, it is not possible for students to take a Contemporary Language Studies module as a credit bearing module at any Level.

Approved by Academic Board, 1 July 2019.