We set out information in our Mental Health and Wellbeing Framework.

Careers

Students have access to career advice and support in finding a graduate job and a wide range of volunteering opportunities to enrich their experience at the University.

We provide the following information:

In Careers and Jobs, we set out the access available for students to career advice and support in finding a graduate job, alongside a wide range of volunteering opportunities to enrich their experience at University.

Careers and Enterprise Hub provides information, events, and guidance on careers, jobs, and planning for the future.

Career development fund information explains the financial assistance for students who wish to undertake a career development opportunity but are finding it financially challenging.

Unitemps information outlines our recruitment service for students, graduates and the community.

Volunteering information outlines the volunteering opportunities for students at the University.

Chaplaincy Services

Whatever a person's faith – or even if you have no faith at all – Christ Church is welcoming to all. Our Chaplaincy team supports all University community members irrespective of where they are from or what they believe.

We provide the following information:

Chaplaincy

Prayer and faith support

Sports and recreational facilities

Sport, active health and wellbeing are essential to the University's provision. We provide the following information:

Sport and active health

Culture and Collections

We provide information on our libraries at Canterbury, Medway, and the Salomons Institute of Applied Psychology (Tunbridge Wells), as well as our collections and resources. Those using our library services must follow the Library Code of Conduct.

We also provide an academic campus bookshop, which stocks thousands of book titles and can obtain any title currently in print, often for next-day delivery.

We are committed to supporting and contributing to the artistic and cultural activities of our communities and the region and provide information on our approach to Arts and Culture. We publish a calendar of events.

The creative arts offer insight into the human condition, allowing past generations of musicians, dancers and actors to push boundaries and express themselves freely. We provide information on Music and Performing Arts Events and Art and Design Events.

Our Public Lectures are a series of thought-provoking, entertaining talks from prominent figures that are free to attend and open to everyone.

The Chaplaincy enables all staff and students to get involved in any of its choirs and worship bands.

Advice and Guidance

Every student has a named member of the academic staff called a personal academic tutor (PAT).

In addition, we provide expert support to students to develop and enhance their academic and study skills. We provide information on study support and the Learning Skills Hub.

A peer mentor who is a current student can give a student the benefit of first-hand experience.

Graduation

Graduation is the pinnacle of completing a student's academic journey. We provide information for Graduating Students on graduation.

Alumni

Through the Alumni Hub, we provide information for former students.

Local campaigns

Canterbury Christ Church University is essential to the fabric and vitality of our local and regional economy and communities. We set out our approach to local campaigns in our information on public engagement.

Community Matters is our regular free newsletter to our neighbours and local community members.

We take the concerns of our neighbours very seriously. Should local residents experience anti-social behaviour and believe our students are involved, we provide information on where they can get help.

We work closely with Canterbury City Council, the University of Kent, and local schools and colleges to ensure coordinated and joined-up Support for Ukraine.

Our students and staff volunteer all over Kent, Medway, and the UK. They offer invaluable support to the broader community, bringing fresh ideas and expertise into local organisations and creating lasting regional connections. We set out the information on Volunteering.
