Please be advised that there is variation for the uniform allocation of these courses depending on the student's cohort.

For Nursing students studying Mental Health (at any level), those that joined in S22 will not have received scrubs and will instead have been provided; 4x tunics, 4x trousers and 1x placement badge.

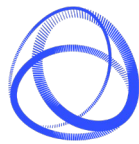

Operating Department Practice Apprenticeship students that joined before S24 will not have been provided with scrubs and are not entitled to these items retroactively.

Paramedic Science students across cohorts have, and will continue to be provided with jackets, however the style/appearance of said jackets will vary.

The uniform allocation listed above is issued free of charge for all students when they join their course. The uniform students are provided with in their first year is expected to last for the duration of their degree. If students join CCCU as a new student in their second or third year, they will be issued some uniform free of charge, however the quantity is decided on a case-by-case basis.

Diagnostic Radiography students / students using ionising radiation – please note students will also be issued with a Thermoluminescent dosimeter. They will receive a separate communication with further information.

Paramedic Science students – please note SECamb will also supply students with a safety helmet, Hi-Vis jacket, Hi-Vis trousers, and safety boots. Any queries around these items or requests for replacements should be sent directly to James Green, Practice Education Lead for South East Coast Ambulance Service, via email: james.green@secamb.nhs.uk.
