Using online databases:
EEBO (Early English Books Online)

What is EEBO?

From Caxton, through the age of Spenser and Shakespeare to the English Civil War, EEBO contains digital images of over 100,000 titles published between 1473 and 1700. Subject coverage includes English literature, history, philosophy, linguistics, theology, music, fine arts, education, and science. Great for Shakespeare scholars and Early Modern historians. Material includes ballads, broadsides, pamphlets, royal proclamations and public documents.

How do I search it?

Click on SEARCH

Enter your search terms into the boxes then click on Search
Your matching results will appear on the next screen.

Note: The Variant Spellings feature allows you to use modern search terms and retrieve variant spellings of the word you entered. For instance, a search for Keyword(s): murder with the Variant spellings checkbox ticked will retrieve all occurrences of the word murder, as well as its variations murther, murther, murder, mudder, and murdir. This includes typographical variants such as v for u, j for i or y, wv for vv or uu, s for f.

E-mailing the results of your search

You can e-mail the book references to yourself. First add the ones you want to your Marked list by checking the box to the left of each entry. Then click on \texttt{MARKED LIST}.
