Using online databases:
Lexis®Library Newspapers UK

What is Lexis®Library Newspapers UK?

Lexis®Library is a forty year archive of full text news articles from a range of UK national and regional newspapers. It is updated with news items daily.

How do I access it?

- Go to LibrarySearch from the Library tile of the Student Portal or the Library Services website (http://www.canterbury.ac.uk/library)
- Log in using your CCCU username and password
- Select Find Databases A-Z, click on L, then click on the link to LexisLibrary Newspapers UK to open it in a new tab.
- Use the Academic Sign in and choose Athens Sign in. Search for your organisation “Canterbury Christ Church University” to complete sign in.
- Accessibility: Instructions for JAWS screen reader users are available on request

How do I search it?

- Click on the News tab along the top menu bar.
- You have the option to “Search all UK News” or to Browse Sources and choose a newspaper title e.g. The Guardian
- You can then search within this newspaper.
- Use speech marks if you wish to search for a phrase e.g. “Dow Jones” or “The Church of England”.
- When you have your results you can refine your search by limiting by date of publication.

MC, April 2019
• You can add additional words and phrases e.g. If you were interested in The Church of England during Rowan Williams’ archepiscopy you could search for “The Church of England” “Rowan Williams” and limit by date from 1/12/2002 to 1/12/2012.
• You can search for business news by using the Industry option in the left-hand menu. e.g. “Pizza Express” limited by “Food and Beverage”.

Viewing your search results

Click on the article title to see the full text. Your search term will be highlighted in the text.

Managing your search results

You can print, email or download articles.

Where to go for further help

Your Learning and Research Librarian will be able to help you make the best use of online resources. E-mail learning.research.support@canterbury.ac.uk to arrange a convenient time to meet.