What is the Times Higher Education?

Times Higher Education is a weekly magazine based in London, reporting specifically on news and issues related to higher education. It is useful for finding university league tables, world ranking, performance indicators and jobs in the higher education sector. It includes a dashboard where you can find out more about your institution’s performance.

How do I access it?

- Go to LibrarySearch from the Library tile of the Student Portal or from the Library Services website (http://www.canterbury.ac.uk/library)
- Log in using your CCCU username and password
- Select Find Databases, click on T, then on the link to THE: Times Higher Education to open this in a new window

How do I register?

The first time you access THE you are required to register by clicking on the Register link on the top right.

Now fill in the form shown below. You must use your canterbury.ac.uk email address, which is for authentication. Select your role from the drop down list offered. You also need to add a user name that will show up on the THE site when you are logged in.

How do I access all of the content off campus?

You should be able to access all THE content whenever you go to www.timeshighereducation.com.
Using THE

Once you are logged in, you can manage your account by clicking on the green icon:

You can also access the articles from the THE app, should you have a compatible device. Once you’ve found and downloaded the app you will need to log in. Click on the icon on the top right, select “Account”, then “Existing THE account” and then enter the username and password that you created when setting up your online account. Once logged in, select and view any issues of THE.

There are several additional functions, such as the DataPoint, which is the “is the strategic dashboard that you need to keep your finger on the pulse of your institution’s performance”. You can view the digital edition of the print version by clicking on Professional and the Digital Editions:

Where to go for further help Your Learning and Research Librarian will be able to help you make the best use of online resources. E-mail learning.research.support@canterbury.ac.uk to arrange a convenient time to meet.

IS, Feb, 2019